

Title: "Empowering future Female Counsel in the field of family law: breaking barriers and inspiring change"

1. Introduction (50 words)

- Brief self-introduction and reasons for applying for this training program.

2. Interest and Motivation for Sri Lankan Family Law (100 words)

- Express your interest in family law and the reasons for the same.
- Discuss the impact you believe you can make in this field.

3. Understanding of Family Law in Sri Lanka (100 words)

- briefly explain your current experience in handling family law matters and your understanding of the key areas of family law in Sri Lanka
- Identify specific areas of family law that you are most interested in.

4. Challenges Faced by Female Lawyers in Sri Lanka (150 words)

- Highlight challenges faced by female lawyers in the Sri Lankan legal landscape.
- Discuss how addressing these challenges is crucial for the growth of female legal professionals in the country.

5. Benefits of Attending the training program (100 words)

- Explain how attending the training program aligns with your professional goals.
- Discuss the benefits you anticipate from the training program, both personally and professionally.

6. Conclusion (50 words)

- Summarize your interest, enthusiasm, and readiness to actively participate in the training program.
- Reiterate your commitment to improving your knowledge and skills in the field of family law.